INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Articles on all topics relevant to development, within East Africa in particular, are welcomed.

Articles should contain up to 5,000 words as a general rule, and should be typed double-spaced, with ample margins.

Footnotes should be placed at the end of the article and numbered consecutively. Tables and Figures should be placed on separate pages.

Articles are published by the decision of the Editorial Board, although the inclusion of any article does not indicate the Board’s approval of the views expressed therein.

Twenty-five offprints of each article will be supplied to the author.
